

www.energyefficientcodes.org

The Energy-Efficient Codes Coalition (EECC), a project of the Institute for Market Transformation, is dedicated to the improvement of the International Energy Conservation Code (IECC), the model energy code in the U.S. With the goal of making buildings safe and affordable for everyone, EECC advocates for updated code adoption in states and local jurisdictions throughout the country.